New Yorks Play Another Brilliant Game-Pittsburghs Fall for the Second Time Before the Brooklyss-Bostons Pull Victory Out of the Fire and Philadelphia Punker Cleveland Down Again-Baltimore Passed St. Louis-Louisville and Washington Break Even-Other News

The fine ball playing of the New York team these days is the talk of the town. So steady has been their good work that they are now in a position to jump over the Clevelands in the write of the next week's games. The Chiengos were humiliated by Ward's men again yesterday, who shut them out without a run. Amos Rusio pitching magnificent ball. The Pittaburghs were thrown over for the second time by the rejuvenated Brooklyns, and Cleve land fell once more before the rapidly reviving Philadephias. The Bostons now have a elear lead of eleven warras, as they pulled victory out of the fire in their battle with the Cincinnatis. Baltimore downed St. Louis and passed the latter club in the race. Washingtop and Louisville broke even on two games. The results:

That Encle Anson's life is a burden to him these muggy days is a certainty. The old man doesn't move around with his usual activity and wears a sad far-away expression on his lobsterlan countenance that betokens pain in the heart and head. Anson's happy days were when he headed a winning bail team and triumphed in all the League cities. Now pape 2' days are dark and gloomy. He fails to see anything junny in the game as played by his so-called 'colts' and seidom talks baseball except to look unutterable things when one of his men is guilty of a borrhile blunder.

Anse was in an unpleasant mood yesterday after the New Yorks got through toying with his World's Fair wonders. He had made up his mind before the game to show the 2,000 cranks that he was still on earth, but instead the gathering of the faithful was fully convinced when the slaughter was over that Anse and his boys were not in the class with. Ward's hustling wine. Amos Rusie pitched. That alone is sufficient evidence that New York won. But it is perhans necessary to add that the Chicagos were shut out out without a single run. Amos was so speedy that the men from Illinois made but three singles, one in the first inning and two it the second. They reached and poked at the electric curves and twisted their necks in vain attempts to hit the tempting drops that went kerplank into Milligan's big glove. In all eight Chicagonna reached first base, three on hits, three on hals, and two on force hits. Only one pan got as far as third base, and but one other landed on second. The New Yorks played a masterly game in the field. Their error column in the accompanying score is full of cliphers, which shows how excellently they performed their work. Ward, Fuller, and Connor played great ball, and Burke's base running was chain lightning.

Wille Modill, the left-handed boy wonder, tossed them over and around the plate for Anson's crowd. Willie was generous in the distribution of bases on balls, and was hibition all in all, the Chicagos made a sorry showing.

The New Yorks began scoring in the last half of the first inning. Burke got four balls and stole second on Kittridge's wide throw. Ward hammered a timely single over Lange's head and Eddle dashed across the plate.

Chicago was blanked in the third by virtue of a grand stop and throw by Davis off McGill's hard ground ball and Connor's great running catch of Dungan's foul. Then Ward's men got another run on Burke's base on balls and steal, Glennlyin dropping Kittridge's neat throw. Ward's sacrifice and the Chicago's vain attempt to catch Ternan, who got his base on balls, between first and second. Burke running home before they could realize the situation.

Funing home before they could realize the situation.

The New Yorks got two more runs in the fifth inning. With two out. The name that the fifth inning. With two out. The name that to first on balls and took third on Davis's hit to centre. Davis allowed himself to be caught between the bases, and Thoman finally scored on a wide throw by larrott. Davis ran home on Rogar Connor's double. In the sixth linese soratched a hit. Burke put him on third with a double, and Ames counted on Lange's wild throw of Ward's grounder. Burke erossed the plate on a wild pitch, but Ward, who tried to score a few feet behind him, was thrown out, Klitridge to Medill. The score: Burke, 1. f. ... 8 1 2 0 0 Dungan, r. f. 0 1 1 0 0

Sharrott pitched against the Pittsburghs at Fastern Park yesterday afternoon, and the Brooklyns won. The Staten Islander pitched in good form, and had little trouble in keeping the Pittsburghs from hitting the bail. He was very steady until the ninth inning, when he weakened somewhat, and the visitors got four safe, hits. Sharrott had fine support, both at the bat and in the field. The Brooklyn players captured the bail whenever it came their way. Shoch made the only error. He played at short stor in Corcoran's place, the latter's "Charley horse" becaming uncontrollable.

Pittsburgh made the first run in the fourth inting. Beckley got a base on bails, Glassock sacrificed, and Bierbauer singled, scoring Beckley. The Brooklyns made three runs in the fourth. Hattleid began the inning with a single, and would have been forced at second on Burne's hit to Ehret had not the pitcher fumbled the bail. Daly reached first on four bad bails. Hatfleid scored on Kinslow's sacrifice. Burne was put out at the plate. Shoch singled. Sharrott's two-base hit scored Daly and Shoch. Daly made a run for Brooklyn in the sixth inning. He hit to centre for three bases, and after Kinslow had banged the bail into Ehret's eye. Daly came home on Shoch's three-bager.

With two men out, Van Haltren singled to left field. Donovan added his little single, and Smith brought them both home by cracking out a two-base hit to right field. Beckley got a first on balls. Glassock sent the ball to right field, and Smith tried to get home. Burnsthrew the ball to Kinslow, who feil all over Smith in his attempt to touch him. Gaffney declared Smith out. ENTHUSIASTIC OVER BASEBALL. A Little Jersey Town Where the Popula-tion Talks of Nothing Eise.

FRANKUS N. J., Aug. 22.—This little town of Essex county is again excited over the good old national game. It has always been a baseball town, having at times as many as four uniformed clubs, and all being liberally supported. The original club was the Frank-lin athletic Association, and they won the admiration and support of all the older residents. In their contests with Belleville, Bloomfield, and other adjacent towns, the personal feeling would run so high that frequently the games would end in a fight. Last year there were three good teams in the township.

The subsequent play was very interesting, and it soon became apparent that Hodges had slightly the better game. With his twentieth move the latter wen the king's pawn although Albin tried hard to prevent it, and, as this pawn was the mainstay of white's position, the collapse of the game could not be put off much longer. When twenty-seven moves had been registered, Hodges had the advantage of having three pawns to the good. He still kept on taking pawns, and when the game was adjourned at 11:30 P.M. Hodges had king, rook, bishop, and five pawns to king, rook, bishop, and five pawns to king, rook, bishop, and defeat, but had to cry off after eighty-two moves. Appended is the game:

Good Judges Say that Pilmmer Outclasses

Among good indges who saw the contest between Billy Plimmer and George Dixon at Madison Square Garden on Tuesday night, men who have been close followers of pugilism for years past, there was but one opinion expressed yesterday upon the result of the ontest, and that was that the diminutive Briton outclassed his russet-hued opponent from start to finish. Plummer never fought better in his life, and among Plimmer never fought better in his life, and among other things which he said after the contest was: I let everythine out which I have had up my sleeve since coming to America."

Of course, the followers of George Dixon, who have followed him since he blossomed out as a parillat, are kicking over the referee's verdict; they contend in rather uncomplimentary terms that the referee was prejudiced, and that the worst Fimmer could have received was a draw. Some said that Dixon's manager permitted his duxly breadwinner to be bested, so as to ensuare Fimmer into a finish contest. The fact is, that the Englishman, since Tuesday night's meeting, which will go down in puglishic history as a great victory for him, can now dictate his own terms and force Dixon to fight him in the 110-112-pound class, or else refuse to make a match.

It seems to be the general impression that Dixon wanted to deliver the Knock out blow to Flimmer. In the second to deliver the Knock out blow to Flimmer. In the second to delive the Knock out blow to Flimmer. In the second that the class of the consistence of the initialing touches to his opponent, but the organization of the consistence. Find the finish contest.

Bob Flixminnens told a Sux reporter that he believed which in the world and can certainly beat Pixon in finish contest mons told a Sux reporter that he believed Plimmer beated Dixon ten to one. "He's the best puglist of his class," added Fitz, "that England has produced in years." Dave Holland and Gus Tuthik, who are particular friends of the Guszy lad, thought Flimmer had the best of it. Billy Madden was of the same opinion. Mark Thail, Corbett's representative, ead Plimmer had things all his own way. Itomink: McCaffrey is very enthusiastic over Plimmer's victory. "Plimmer made a great showing," he said, "and was more scientific than Dixon. I think he can whip him a finish fight."

"O'Rourke and his press agent abused me most anamefully after I had rendered in verdict." he said. "They called me all the net names they could think of. They called me all the net names they could think of. They called me all the net names they could think of and said that they would fix it so that I would never be able to get on a light here again. They subjected me to all sorts of abuse, and if I did not care about getting myself into trouble I would have said something to them then and there. But I kept quiet. They accused me of vagering $100 on Finamer. To tell you an horeest fact, I did not bet a cent. I couldn't afford to injure my reputation by doing so. I thought Pilmmer wor, and said so. Solly Smith, who saw the fight, thinks that if Dixon fights him the way he did Plimmer that he will win in a canter. He said Finnmer bested Dixon fairly.

State Senator McCarren was at Monmouth, after a week's sojourn at Saratoga.
Hamilton was perhaps a trifle too confident with Wildwood when he headed Old Bones in the stretch.
The boy A. Downing, who rode Hyaway in the fourth race, was sporting silk for the first time in his life.

Somethy was appealing of Grey Verbeley.

Somebody was speaking of Grey Eagle's speed at a quarter of a mile when Jack Joyner offered to bet $1,000 to $500 that Lady Violet could beat the little horse at that distance.

Stonenell, and Chief Justice Yesterday's Winners. It was a quiet day at Monmouth Park, so far as the racing was concerned, about 3,500 persons being present. various events the slowest of the meeting. The struggle between Raceland and Wildwood was the feature of the day. For the opening dash at five furlongs Black Hawk was once more installed favorite. There was a long delay at the post, La Misere behaving very badly. Black Hawk and Miss Fordham made the running for three furiongs, when the sister to Fordham swerved, and Doggett brought Micmac Queen up with a rush. Goodrien rode Black Hawk none too strong, and the Oneck filly, noted for her gameness, passed him in the final strides, and won by a trifle over a length. Florence, well played by McCafferty & Wishard, was a close

The judges were not satisfied with Goodale's handling of Black Hawk, and it was said that the young man was in no condition to ride, in short that he was under the influence of liquor. Yemen was the choice for the second race. but not a few fancied Sister Mary to beat the Rancocas gelding. Cactus and Lakeview were at Clover's head showed in front. Lucky Clover led to the last sixteenth pole, where she was collared by King Leo, who came up on the outside and forzing to the front, won, with Lucky Clover second and Larghetta third.

Nellie It was a warm favorite for the first race. The winner turned up in Zingara, a 5 to 1 shot, while Bryan, at 8 to 1, took second money, with Bob Sutherland third.

Robin Hood was the top choice in the second race at even money, and again the failtful saw their money silp away while Robin Hood was behind the third horse at the finish. Florinda, a 10 to 1 shot, did the trick. She led at the start, and was not headed, winning in a gallop from Hypatia, with Romee third.

Mary S. had the call in the third race at even money and was the first good thing of the day to go through. Wheeler made the running well into the stretch, when Mary S. took the race in hand and won in a pretty finish by half a length from Wheeler. Lou Rhelt miserably ridden, was an indifferent third.

Grov Eagle was second choice in the hetting, with Oxford a top-heavy favorite at 0 to 5. The talent favored Oxford on the strength of his victory over the liftle Toxan on Saturday, while the owner and friends of the latter quietly placed goodly sums on him to win. The horses were well bunched as the flag fell, Grey Eagle being third, but he instantly shot to the front and led by several lengths of daylight to the finish, winning by two lengths, Berwyn beat Oxford a like distance for second money.

The talent were beaten onto the ground in the sixth race. They saw nothing in the field but Mamie Kelly, The winner materialized in Willie McAuliffe. a 20 to 1 chance. Mamie Kelly got the best of the start, but died out early in the race when challenged by Willie McAuliffe. The latter led to the finish, an acasy waner from Comprandor. Upstart was a poor third. Summaries follow: long odds. It was a very pretty contest be tween the quartet for more than half a mile, there being very little advantage, and all seemed to be running in hand. When it came to real racing at the end. Cactus running straight and true, drew out and won with Doggett sitting still. It took all of Taral's skill to get Lakeview home a neck before Yemen. get Lakeview home a neck before Yemen. Sister Mary was meeting horses iust beyond her limit, and properly placed, she should win a good race at Sheepshead Bay for Mr. Doyle. It was Yemen's lirat race in some time, and although he looked big and strong, he did not run up to the expectations of his owner.

The third race was a hummer. There were but two starters, Raceland and Wildwood, the others being withdrawn. Raceland was a tremendous favorite in the betting, and most of the speculation was on a time limit. Raceland led by a length or so until the turn, where Hamilton moved up with Wildwood, and after a hundred yards the brown coit gradually overhauled Old Bones, and opposite the regular judges' stand he had a half length's advantage of the favorite. The grand stand was in a turnult in a moment, and Taral, thoroughly alarmed, went whipping and riding like mad. Raceland, with the gameness that has always characterized him, began all over again, and getting up once more neat the outsider on the post by a neck. A great many thought that Hamilton could not have lost had he waited a moment longer before making his effort. The jockey said after the race that the horse stopped under him at the very finish.

The talent got quite a severe joit in the fourth race for two-year-olds. Terrapin was favorite, but the chestnut colt is considerable of a counterfeit, and there was nothing in the race that could make Melody run. The Morris fility was in front from the start and won with the most consummate ease, while Setauket easily disposed of the favorite for second money. It is more than probable that he is very susceptible to weight.

Of course there was no chance for either Joe Cotton or Peril to beat Stonenell at the weights, and there was little or no interest in the fifth race. Old Joe Cotton was in front for the first three furlouges, but it was only on sufferance, as Stonenell at the weight was much speed as the Californians claim for her, although is he may improve later on when thoroughly acclimatized. "The simple truth is, that I was in Fianagan's Hotel and while in conversation with Mr. Devlin had my arms folded. I did not dream that he would make an assault upon me. Without provocation, or any notice as to his intentions, thus taking me off my guard, he struck me, jumping back out of my reach as he delivered the blow. The bystanders jumped between us and prevented further action, Devlin escaping into a room in the rear. That's all there is to the story."

Hey el Santa Anita had what was practically a Futurity trial in the two-year-old race. His performance on paper does not establish a very strong claim on the big event at Sheepshead, but the manner in which he defeated some by no means indifferent roungsters aroused a strong feeling of respect for him among the horsome here. He will probably make another public appearance before leaving here, and a better idea may be gained of his prowess.

NO FRICTION AT MONMOUTH.

MESSES, CROKER, DWYER, AND WAL-COTT SAY THERE IS NO THOUBLE.

The Air Pull of Rumors of All Kinds -Messrs, P. J. Dwyer and John A. Morris Out of Town-Suits Against the Times and Tribune-Mesers, Bronson and Rowers to Get Badges at Sheepshead Bay.

Ever since the Monmouth Park Association asked for the badges of Messre, Tracey Bron-son of the Times and Arthur F. Bowers of the Tribune for printing what the Executive Committee deemed unfair and unjustifiable critibeen full of rumors of quarrels between the stockholders of the Monmouth Park Association, and there was said to be a total lack of harmony in the governing body of the turf known as the Board of Control.

Mr. Alfred F. Walcott, President of the Monmouth Park Association, said yesterday that there was absolutely no truth in the printed stories which credited him with refusing to attend a meeting of the Board of Control on Tuesday, and he characterized the storr as having not the slightest foundation in fact. Mr. Bichard Croker and Mr. M. F. Dwyer, both of whom are interested in the Monrouth Park Association with Mr John A. Morris and Mr.

P. J. Dwyer, were seen at the club house.

Mr. Croker said: "There isn't a word of truth in the published statements to the effect that there is any friction between the stockholders of this association. It has been mentioned that there is a light against Mr. Morris. There is no man in racing for whom I have more respect and regard than John A. Morris." Mr. Dwyer, who had heard the conversation Mr. Dwyer, who had heard the conversation between Mr. Croker and The Sun reporter, then said: "I wish you would quote me as having the same sentiments as Mr. Croker. I'm sure both my brother Philip and investif have a high regard for Mr. Morris. We are his friends, and have no quarrer whatever with him."

It has been known for some time past that the Coner Island Jockey Club would sconer or later have to face the question of admitting to their track or refusing to recognize Messers. Bronson and Howers, and it was for this purpose that a meeting of the Executive Committee of that body was called in The Cumberland at Fitth avenue and Twenty-second street yesterday morning. There were present President J. G. K. Lawrence Kipp, Gen. Daniel Butterfield and John t. Hieckscher. After a long discussion, during which several rules of racing were critically analyzed, the committee arrived at the conclusion that inasmuch as the parties named had not been rule off for fraudulent practices, they had no right to refuse them the privileges of the Coney Island's course at Sheepshead Pay. A letter to this effect was sent to Secretary H. G. Crickmore of the Monmouth Park Association by a messenger. Suits and counter suits for damages in this matter will soon engage the attention of the Monmouth Park Association by a messenger. There will undoubtedly be a meeting of the Board of Control as soon as Messrs. Dywer and Morris return to town, which will be within a week at the very latest. Until then what is said about the future will be largely problematical.

By the Soft Track at Hampden Park-A Spaingrield, Aug. 23.-The harness races drew a large crowd to Hampden Park this afternoon, and if the miles were not fast the contests were interesting. In the open class for pacers, Hai Pointer was a big favorite. The rare, however, lasted until dark, and was then postponed. The first heat was so easy for the old warrier from Tennessee that arrangements were made for distance to be waived in the third heat. so that Hal Pointer might have a sty at the track record. In the second inte this programme was waried by the break which Pointer made on the upper turn, so that Blue Sign got home a long way ahead. Hal Pointer kept steady the next time, and dashed off a mile in 2:10%. The flag was not as de in the fourth heat, but instead of a fast unie the favorite go. Into beat, but instead of a fast mile the favorite go. Into difficulty again in the third quarter and, soing from one break into another, was hopelessly behind. The soft footing made trouble for the traiters early in the afternoon as well, so thit neither island. Wilkes nor Bellin was able to do anything in the 2:20 class, San Pedro was not considered after the half-smired his customary first heat, and even after adding another to his atomy the wide were 4 to 1 against him. Corpine, the choice of the talent, had not been less out yet, and when Chenry save the atom tay mare her head in the third heat, the rice was all over, as she won the siding heat line for the reason, but was only raised to go three heats. Belliot was faken with a sight to go three heats. Bellini was laked with a sight bleeding at the nose after the second heat, and he, too, dropped out, island Wikker gave a good deal of frombe in the sciring, and indistantia fried in vini to get the stallion settled down to he chip but tailed. Monroe Salisbury's nour neck fook a term in the 227 trot, which his entry, Charley C. landed in straight heats. He got a mark of 214 in the third heat, a second below what he carned at Grand Rapids. The brown golding was backed at about even monry, and none of the field was no to his quality. Summeries:
